

THE PLANNEROur guide to the week

SPECTRUMPLANNER@FAIRFAXMEDIA.COM.AU

visual artTELL

Seventeen leading Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists explore culture and its survival in this photo exhibition. Pictured is Warwick Thornton's 2013 Untitled 2 (detail). Until February 24, UNSW Galleries, corner of Oxford Street and Greens Road, Paddington, free, sydneyfestival.org.au

GUY WARREN

Curator Luke Sciberras has brought together a collection of works, spanning 1965-2017, on paper from Guy Warren's studio. Born in 1921, Warren uses a lifetime of knowledge and practice in the studio, depicting powerful Australian imagery through oils and watercolour. January 30-February 24, King Street Gallery, 177 William Street, Darlinghurst, free, 9360 9727, kingstreetgallery.com.au

LOST VEGAS

Sydney artist Tim Levy explores party city Las Vegas

in his new exhibition. Levy's signature street style photos delve into the life behind the glitz and glamour. The exhibition will also feature the winning image in the Head On Landscape Prize and one of the finalists for the Josephine Ulrick and Win Schubert Photography Award. January 30-February 11, Black Eye Gallery, 3/138 Darlinghurst Road, Darlinghurst, free,

8084 7541, blackeyegallery.com.au

ARTEXPRESS

The cream of this year's crop of HSC art students will have their works, including sculpture, photography and painting, on display. Until April 25, Art Gallery of NSW, Art Gallery Road, city, free, 1800 679 278, artgallery.nsw.gov.au